Section 3. Interpretation, Conflict, and Separability. In their interpretation and application, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be held to be the minimum requirements for the promotion of the public health, safety and general welfare, and shall be construed to achieve the purposes for which this Ordinance was adopted.

This Ordinance is intended to interfere with, abrogate, and annul any other ordinance, rule, order, memorandum, or guideline prevailing in the City of Bacoor prior to its approval. Where any provision of this Ordinance imposes restrictions different from those imposed under other provisions of the General Ordinances Code, the provision that is more restrictive or that imposes higher standards shall control.

If any court of competent jurisdiction adjudges any part or provision of the General Ordinances Code --or the application hereof to any person or circumstances -- invalid, such judgment shall be limited in its application to the part, provision or application directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment shall be rendered. It shall not affect or impair the validity and continued enforcement of any other parts of provisions of the said Code or the application of them to other persons or circumstances.

Section 4. Automatic Review. The Sangguniang Panlungsod shall automatically review this Ordinance once every three (3) years following its approval.

Section 5. Due Process Requirements. The rudimentary requirements of procedural and administrative due process shall be strictly observed prior to the imposition of any of the penalties specified above. Thus, the City Mayor and City Health Officer and all other city employees under them shall ensure that persons against whom the said penalties are intended to be imposed shall be:

- (a) notified in writing of the acts committed or not committed that constitutes a violation of this Ordinance;
- (b) given at least 24 hours from receipt of the notice within which to comply with the particular provision of the Ordinance that was allegedly violated;
- (c) exempted from facing criminal prosecution after the suspected offender voluntarily pays the corresponding
